

Perry County Recycling Program

There are four Perry County Recycling program drop-off sites located in Tyrone Township, Newport, Millerstown, and Centre Township. (see back for detailed site info.) At these sites, only recyclables dropped off during collection hours in clear Perry County recycling bags will be accepted. Bags are available for $2.75 and are sold at the recycling drop-off sites during collection hours. Bags are also available at the Oliver Township building during normal business hours, and at the New Bloomfield Market.

Materials collected are as follows. Just place the Inside the Bag materials in the bag, all items listed can be placed in one bag. No sorting required! Bring the Outside the Bag materials in separately as described.

Inside the Bag:

- ☛ Aluminum Cans: Rinsed and crushed. Foil is also accepted.
- ☛ Bi- Metal (tin) Cans: Rinsed and crushed.
- ☛ Office Grade Paper: Sheets or shredded
- ☛ Magazines
- ☛ All Types of Books
- ☛ All #1 PETE and #2 #7 HDPE Plastic Containers & Bottles: Rinsed with caps or lids removed.

Outside the Bag:

- ☛ Cardboard: Flattened cardboard, cereal and shipping boxes. No packing material.
- ☛ Newspapers: Tied or in a paper bag.
New! Beginning January 1, 2011:
- ☛ All colors container glass will be accepted for a minimum fee of $2.00 (no businesses).
Glass should be transported in a cardboard box or reusable container.

Please do NOT have trash in with your recyclables.
